—The funeral of Mrs. William G. Simpson, aged sixty-three, who died at his home in Lexington, was held at 1:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon at the home of his brother-in-law, Roger S. Nichols, in Lexington, with services conducted by Rev. Dr. A. W. Fountain. The body was brought to Paris, where the interment took place on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery.

—Mr. Simpson was a native of Bourbon county, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Simpson, pioneer residents of the county. He was for many years a noted trainer of trotters for Durbin Horne, of Pittsburg, Pa., who had a number of fine trotters in his stable. Mr. Simpson was formerly connected with the Blue Grass Fair Association, and for the past two years had been connected with the Kentucky Jockey Club.

—Mr. Simpson is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Lizzie Nichols, of Paris; one sister, Mrs. Wm. G. Lunsford, of Birmingham, Ala., and several nieces and nephews, and one cousin, Miss Annie Wright, of Paris.

—The funeral of Mrs. Annie Elgin, aged sixty-seven, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, Friday afternoon, following a lingering illness. About three months ago Mrs. Elgin underwent a surgical operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, in hopes that the disease which was sapping away her life might be checked. For a while there were indications of improvement in her condition, but later she became worse, and was taken to the Lexington institution again. When it became evident the end was close at hand she asked to be brought back to her old home.

—Mrs. Elgin was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph K. Redmon, and was born in Paris on Oct. 21, 1855. In 1880 she was married to Jeff C. Elgin, who was for several years a member of the Paris police force and later elected Chief of Police.

—She is survived by one son, Jeff C. Elgin, of Memphis, Tenn., who was at her bedside when the end came; one sister, Mrs. Charles Whaley, of Paris; one brother, Joe K. Redmon, of Latonia; two nieces, Mrs. I. D. Thompson, of Paris, and Miss Sarah Louise Redmon, of Latonia.

—The funeral was held at the residence on Seventh street, Saturday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Dr. J. M. Williams, Ed. F. Prichard, Chas. S. Ball, Frank Bell, Pearce Paton and C. K. Thomas.

—James S. Ginn, aged about forty-seven, a well-known farmer of this county, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, Saturday afternoon, shortly after he had been taken suddenly ill. Mr. Ginn had ordered breakfast at the Owsley restaurant, and had gone to his automobile, near the White Front Garage, when he was seized with an attack of heart failure. Dr. Wm. Kenney was summoned and took the stricken man in his machine to the Hospital, where he expired before he could be helped inside.

—Mr. Ginn was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ginn, pioneer residents of Montgomery county. He had been engaged in farming and in handling threshing machines in the county for several years, and was well-liked by all who knew him.

—Mr. Ginn is survived by four brothers, Wesley Ginn, of Mt. Sterling, formerly of Hutchison; Alonzo Ginn, of Hutchison; R. A. Ginn, of Mulberry, O.; Clifford Ginn, of Lexington; three sisters, Mrs. M. Gleek, of Ludlow; Mrs. Maymie Cook, of Lexington; Mrs. M. Butler, of Covington.

—The funeral was held at the home of his brother, Alonzo Ginn, near Hutchison, at two o'clock, Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. Walter Williams. The interment followed in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Ossie Gravitt, James Ginter, George Link, William Ginn, Charles Ginn and Joseph Ginn.

—Mrs. Mary Lail Gossett, aged eighty-five, widow of Lindsay Gossett, of Lexington, died Saturday at the home of her son, James P. Lail, on the North Middletown pike.

—Mrs. Gossett was a sister of the late Mrs. Thomas Megibben, of Cynthiana, and is the last of her family. She is survived by one son, James P. Lail, of Bourbon county; one daughter, Miss Anna Gossett, of Cynthiana; four nieces and three nephews.

—The funeral will be held at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. W. Bramble, in Cynthiana, at eleven o'clock, this (Tuesday) morning, with services conducted by Rev. J. H. Armistead, of Cynthiana. The burial will follow in the family lot in Battle Grove Cemetery, in Cynthiana.

—Following an illness of about two months, Strauder Goff, aged about sixty-four years, died at his home in Winchester, Friday night. Mr. Goff was president of the Clark County National Bank. He was editor of the Shorthorn Record, when the shorthorn industry was paramount in the State. He was engaged in farming in Clark county until 1905, when in partnership with the late Robert S. Thompson, of Bourbon county, he purchased the well-known Block B ranch, in the Panhandle section of Texas, which business was successful until the death of Mr. Thompson in 1916. He was elected president of the Clark County National Bank in 1918, which position he held to the time of his death.

—The funeral was held at his residence in Winchester, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. MacNeill, of the Winchester Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Winchester Cemetery.

—Mrs. Lucy Daniels Letton, aged seventy-one, widow of J. H. Letton, for years one of the best-known farmers of this county, died Friday afternoon, at her home on Main street, in this city, after a brief illness due to a complication of diseases.

—Mrs. Letton was formerly Miss Lucy Daniels, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Daniels, of Texas. She formerly resided at the old Letton home on the Jackstown pike, near Paris, and a few years ago bought a home in Paris, where she has since resided.

—Mrs. Letton is survived by five children: Mrs. Texie Williams, of Lexington; Mrs. Bruce Anderson, of Paris; J. H. Letton, of Tampa, Fla.; Jesse Letton and Reynolds Letton, of near Paris.

—The funeral was held at the family home in this city at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Millersburg Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Harry Letton, Letton Vimont, John H. Marr, Garrett Jefferson, Everette Patton and Chas. Layson.

—Following a long illness, due to a complication of diseases, George B. Minter, aged seventy-seven, a well-known builder and contractor of this city, died yesterday afternoon, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Smart, on South Main street. Mr. Minter had been in bad health for some time, and had been confined to his bed for several weeks.

—Mr. Minter had spent the larger part of his life in Paris, where he had been engaged in the lumber and building business. During the war between the States he served as a soldier in the Confederate army.

—His skill as a builder is attested by the large number of fine buildings which were erected in Paris and the county under his supervision. Years ago he was foreman at the lumber and planing mills conducted on Winchester street by the late Capt. James M. Thomas, and was in after years associated with some of the large manufacturing firms of the city as foreman and builder. He was superintendent of construction of the new Bourbon County Court House, acting for the county, in conjunction with the contractors, Gibson & Crawford, of Indiana. Mr. Minter was a member of Bourbon Lodge Odd Fellows, and was Scribe of the Imperial Encampment of the same order.

—He is survived by his widow, three sons, Edgar, Early and Harry Minter, all of Lexington; three daughters, Mrs. Edward Smart, Mrs. Chas. Burns and Mrs. Edward Brannon, all residing in Paris, and by several grandchildren; also by two brothers, Max Minter, residing in Texas, and Claude Minter, of Kansas City.

—The funeral will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Smart, on South Main street, at 2:30 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon. The burial will take place on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery, with committal services at the grave conducted by the Bourbon Lodge Odd Fellows. The pall-bearers will be James L. Hill, Woodford Spears, A. L. Slicer, E. B. January, Lawrence VanHook and John Dejarrette.
